School Director Meeting:
I will be attending a meeting with Mrs Anne Nolan, our School Director on Thursday afternoon, regarding Work, Health and Safety and the new School Planning and Reform Agenda.

King and Queen of Green:
Our school will be entertained by a visiting theatrical group on Thursday afternoon regarding Work, Health and Safety and the new School Planning and Reform Agenda.

Loom Bands:
The latest craze “loom bands” has really taken off and it’s a great pastime keeping children busy with their hands rather than watching television or playing the X-box! However at school they have become quite a problem. They are very disturbing in class and have caused lots of squabbles in the classroom. Teachers have asked if they please be kept at home from now on, this includes bracelets already made. Thank you for your assistance with this.

Have a great week

Library News

Congratulations to all our students who use our library every Friday. Well done also to parents who join their children at this time. Please remember to write the library books down in the home reader book. It counts too, if they read it themselves. If your child has not been a borrower please encourage them to do so. Remember to be a reader is to one day be a leader.

Regards Mrs Tamra Beaumont & Mrs Jo Steward.

Happy Birthday

King & Queen of Green

This Thursday, NEIS will be hosting the King and Queen of Green. This performance focuses on waste and the value of composting. The cost is $4.00 per student. Please send the $4.00 in an envelope with your child’s name and ‘King & Queen of Green’ clearly marked on the front. Please post in the office foyer letterbox.
School Holidays
School resumes
Term 3, Tuesday, 15th July

School Refund Policy
When excursions/performances are organized, every item has a cost - transport, venue etc. This total cost is then divided by the number of students attending this excursion/performance. On occasions there are unforeseen circumstances that may prevent your child from attending this event. If for any reason it is through a school error that your child cannot, your money will be refunded. If the fault does not lie with the school, it cannot be responsible for covering the loss of funds if your child does not attend, therefore there will be no refunds.
